REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 8th November 1880.

No. 66.—It is hereby notified for public information that all the rights of the present jodidars and kayamguttadars in the undermentioned jodi and kayamgutta villages which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shewn in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, and kayamguttadars, will be sold by public auction at the places and on the dates mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the dates specified and the villages will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

3. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

4. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

5. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

6. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Chief Commissioner.

7. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been tered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner errors of description and in estimated extent.

8. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the final order in such appeal.

The term of credit allowed for payment of sums due for wood purchased at Húnsúr, Seringapatam, Sorab, Ságar, Anantapur, Tirthahalli and Honnali will however terminate on the 25th March 1881, by which date all sums must be paid up, failing which the penalties will be enforced.

The 26th November 1880.

No. 74.—In continuation of Notification No. 52 of the 16th September last, the following arrangements for instruction in Medicine and Natural Science are announced :—

2. For collegiate instruction in medicine, scholarships will be granted tenable at the Grant Medical College, Bombay, or the Medical College at Madras. Four scholarships at Rs. 25 each per month will be at once thrown open from the Provincial Funds, and one more scholarship every year hereafter. The candidates for these scholarships should have passed at least the First-in-Arts examination, and should possess the necessary qualifications in regard to physical health, character, &c. The scholarship will be tenable for 5 years, the period required to complete the course prescribed, subject to periodical reports of good conduct and progress from the head of the Institution.

3. For training medical subordinates of the lower grade, the Chief Commissioner has resolved to establish a Local Medical School at Bangalore, the master appointed to which will also give instruction in Chemistry and Physiology, Human and Comparative, which are the most important subjects embraced in the University Natural Science course, both to the students of the Central College as well as to a limited number of outsiders desirous of availing themselves of the instruction.

4. The Local Medical School will provide a three years' course of instruction. Admission will be open only to students who have matriculated or have studied for a year in a Matriculation Class, and the school fee will be fixed at Rs. 2 per month.

5. In connection with this school, eleven scholarships of Rs. 8 each per month will be at once provided out of the Local Funds, and a similar number will be thrown open to candidates every year hereafter, viz., 2 in each of the larger Districts of Bangalore, Mysore and Shimoga, and one in each of the remaining 5 Districts. The scholarship students and any other poor students who may be considered deserving will be admitted free. The Deputy Commissioners should at once take steps to select and send out the scholarship students from their respective Districts, taking care to satisfy themselves in communication with the Local Medical authorities in regard to the aptitude of the candidates for the profession. It is desirable that the school should open not later than the 15th January 1881.

6. With regard to instruction in Chemistry and Physiology to general students both from the Central College and from outside, arrangements will be made for giving it in the Central College at Bangalore for 3 days in the week and for 2 hours a day during a portion of the year. The fee will be fixed at Rs. 2 per month, being reduced to one rupee in the case of masters and students of Government and Aided schools.

7. The Chief Commissioner is pleased to appoint Mr. D. A. Choksi, Licentiate of Medicine and Surgery of the Bombay Medical College, as Head Master of the Medical School, Bangalore, with effect from the 6th instant.

The 3rd December 1880.

No. 75.—It is hereby notified for public information that all the rights of the present kayamguttadar in the undermentioned kayamgutta village in the Anekal Taluk of the Bangalore District, which has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shewn in the subjoined statement) by the said kayamguttadar, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on that date and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. The sale conveys the full right of occupancy free of all incumbrances created by the former occupant. This will not apply to other immovable property of the defaulter on which the arrear is not due, and the sale of which can only convey the right, title, and interest of the defaulter.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account, or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute, until the sale has been confirmed by the Chief Commissioner.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Chief Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession, and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Chief Commissioner within thirty days from the day of sale and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
